

BETS CALLED OFF IN BIG MAT MATCH

Winners Angry Because Wagers Not Paid in Hack-Gotch Fiasco.

Chicago, September 5.—Calling off all bets on the Hack-Gotch wrestling match yesterday has raised a storm of protests by those who had money up on the winner. Herman F. Schuetler, assistant chief of police, last night explained the action by saying that such procedure is customary. An added reason, he said, is that the police are determined to stamp out gambling in the city.

"Referee Smith," Chief Schuetler explained, "proposed that the bets be called off. His reason was that in case the match turned out to be a poor one, as it did, there would be a tremendous 'squawk' from the bettors, and the wrestling game would receive a serious setback in Chicago. You understand, it is quite customary to call bets off in events of this kind. It has little effect, as the bettors will back their opinions regardless of the announcement."

"One more fiasco like this and wrestling is a dead card in Chicago."

SOPRANO WINS FEATURE EVENT

Hartford, Conn., September 5.—There were but two races in the Grand Circuit to-day, the 2:08 trot and the 2:19 trot. Soprano, whose work on the track this year has been marked, was the favorite in the 2:08 and won the first and last two heats and race with 2:06 3/4 in the first heat, the best time.

With but three entries, the 2:19 trot was easy for Lee Wilson, the gelding taking the race in straight heats, with Lady Willow, a close second, and Baron Aberdeen, a poor third. The best time, was in the first heat 2:10 1/4. Summaries:

2:08 trot, three in five, purse $2,000.—Soprano, first; Belvidere, second; Willy, third. Best time, 2:06 3/4.

2:19 trot, three in five, purse $2,000, amateur drivers.—Lee Wilson, first; Lady Willow, second; Baron Aberdeen, third. Best time, 2:10 1/4.

KILBANE SOON TO RESUME TRAINING

Los Angeles, Cal., September 5.—Showing little effect of the hard mulling in his fight with Rivers, which he ended so suddenly and spectacularly yesterday afternoon at Vernon, Johnny Kilbane, of Cleveland, said to-day he would rest a while before again taking up the routine of training for his bout with Frankie Conley.

In a conference last night after the Rivers contest, Kilbane agreed to a change of dates, and will meet Conley September 20. Kilbane said to-

GRIFFIN BELIEVES COLTS WILL WIN OUT

Has No Doubt But That Locals Can Best Goobers in Post-Season Inter-City Series Which Begins Here To-Morrow Afternoon at Usual Hour.

Steve Griffin, who will pilot the Colts when they start to stampe the Goobers in the intercity series which begins to-morrow afternoon at the usual hour, in the local lot, stated last night that he based his calculations that Richmond would win over the Goobers on the result of all the games played between Richmond and Petersburg during the season.

"It's just this way," opined Steve, "we have played Busch and his crowd exactly twenty-eight games up to date, of which we have the misfortune to lose fifteen. To offset this we have thirteen to the merry, leaving a slight balance of two on the wrong side of the ledger."

"Now, I figure this advantage in favor of the challenged parties to have been gained when the Colts were in that awful slump just a short while ago. All the fans will remember that when the fellows had their doovers down, an old club, even Petersburg, could beat them. It's different now, entirely different. We have confidence and we have ability, which properly construed, means that we are going to win the series."

Of course, that's merely Steve's

New York, September 5.—John A. Heydler, secretary of the National Baseball League, announced to-day that the following dates had been set for playing off postponed and tie games:

At Boston—Boston with Philadelphia (two), September 7.

At Brooklyn—Brooklyn with Philadelphia, September 6; Brooklyn with Boston (two), October 6; Brooklyn with New York, October 10.

At New York—New York with Philadelphia (two), October 6; New York with Brooklyn, October 11.

At Pittsburgh—Pittsburgh with Cincinnati, September 6; Pittsburgh with Chicago (two games each day), September 14 and 15; Pittsburgh with New York, September 19.

At Cincinnati—Cincinnati with Pittsburgh, September 13; Cincinnati with Philadelphia (two), September 17; Cincinnati with Brooklyn, two each on September 20 and 21, and one game each day on September 22 and October 2.

At Chicago—Chicago with St. Louis, September 6; Chicago with Cincinnati (two), September 7; Chicago with Brooklyn (two), September 17; Chicago with Philadelphia, two games each day on September 20 and 21; Chicago with Boston (two), September 24. One game also with Philadelphia on September 21, provided Philadelphia has no postponed game in Cincinnati and Brooklyn, none in Chicago.

Cincinnati, two games each day on September 14 and 15; St. Louis with Boston, two games each day on September 16 and 17; St. Louis with New York, two games on September 20 and 21.

VIRGINIA TECHS TO TACKLE YALE ELEVEN

V. P. I. Gridiron Warriors Have Hard Schedule, Beginning October 1 With Hampden-Sidney and Closing Thanksgiving With North Carolina A. & M. at Norfolk.

Football Schedule of the V. P. I. 1911. October 1, Hampden-Sidney, at Blacksburg.

October 7, University of Maryland (pending).

October 14, Yale University, at New Haven.

October 21, Western Maryland, at Blacksburg.

October 28, Washington and Lee University, at Roanoke.

November 4, University of North Carolina, at Richmond.

November 11, Morris Harvey College, of West Virginia, at Blacksburg.

November 18, University of Tennessee, at Blacksburg.

November 30, A. and M. of North Carolina, at Norfolk.

Blacksburg, Va., September 5.—The above schedule sets forth the engagements of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute on the gridiron during the season of 1911. Although the schedule for this fall has undergone some changes, it will require only a glance to see that it is up to the high standard set in previous years. V. P. I. having had the honor for several seasons of playing the hardest schedule of any Southern institution.

Of the nine games included in the 1911 schedule, five are with teams played last season. The Navy, Eastern College, Maryland and George Washington University, however, have been replaced by Yale, University of Maryland, Morris Harvey College and the University of Tennessee. In being able to place Yale on the 1911 schedule, V. P. I. has accomplished something that has been sought by a number of the leading institutions of the South for many years. The Yale game will be looked forward to as the great

WHERE THEY PLAY TO-DAY.

Richmond at Petersburg.
Danville at Norfolk.
Lynchburg at Roanoke.

Petersburg, Va., September 5.—The Colts made it certain that they would finish in fourth place. Even should the Goobers win to-day and Lynchburg again defeat Roanoke, Richmond will be at the top of the second division by four points. Here is how it will look:

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Richmond	56	62	.475
Lynchburg	56	64	.471

If Richmond should win and Lynchburg lose, or if both should win, or both lose, the result would, of course, be the same. And here is where the fun part comes in, Lynchburg is one of the two clubs which has won the series between the two teams, Petersburg being the other. The Goobers have licked the Colts thirteen times, while the best the Colts could get from the Hillmen were eight encounters. The Colts split even with Norfolk, each getting twelve, and the locals had the same up against the Tigers, at nine and nine. Danville is the one club which Richmond licked, fourteen wins counting against twelve to the bad for the Red Sox.

Lynchburg has suffered horribly at the hands of Roanoke, losing twenty-two as against ten in the won column. Poor Danville has gone up against the Tars twenty-eight times and has come off second best sixteen times.

The champion Goobers have earned the series from every team in the league, the series being: With Richmond fifteen to thirteen; with Lynchburg fifteen to thirteen; with Norfolk, twelve to eleven; with Danville, twelve to nine; with Roanoke, fifteen to eight; with Lynchburg, thirteen to ten. It is the only team in the league which has accomplished this feat.

LANGFORD WHIPS HOBOKEN TERROR

But Jeannette Puts Up Stiff Fight for Every Second of Fight.

Madison Square Garden, New York, September 5.—Sam Langford won his ten-round bout with Joe Jeannette in the Madison Square Garden to-night, but every minute of the thirty in which blows were exchanged, the Boston man knew he had a stiff problem to solve. Jeannette fought gamely and cleverly. The Hoboken negro was at no time afraid of the Boston terror, and frequently sent back better than he got.

It was a gruelling mill from start to finish and while it was fast and clever, the bout was somewhat of a disappointment to the followers of pugilism. Langford was looked to for a knockout in seven rounds, but the fact that Jeannette pulled through for the limit sent Langford's stock, as a likely opponent for Johnson, away down.

We will have more to say on this matter later.

BLUFF CALLED BY FRANK GOTCH

Hackenschmidt Fourflushes About Private Return Match and Welches at Showdown.

Chicago, September 5.—George Hackenschmidt left for New York to-day after offering to post $5,000 for a private return match with Frank Gotch. He was accompanied by Americus and Koch, two of his wrestling partners. Hackenschmidt will sail from New York September 9.

Hackenschmidt's offer for a return match with Gotch was offset later by his contradictory statement that after leaving New York he would never return to America. In the meantime the offer had been carried to Gotch and accepted, with the provision that the match be held within two months. This was not accepted by Hackenschmidt, on the ground that his injured knee would not permit his return to the ring in that time.

Gotch will leave for Humboldt, Ia., either Friday or Saturday.
